

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 19, 2002

Contact: Cathy Henninger
317/232-3070

Charity Gaming Seminars Being Held for Not-for-Profit Organizations

The Indiana Department of Revenue will be sponsoring three training seminars, this fall in Indianapolis, Plymouth and Madison to help explain new and existing laws and regulations for not-for-profit organizations, which either currently conduct, or would like to conduct, charity gaming activities.

Such legal activities may include bingo; card, dice, roulette wheel and spindle games; the sale of pull tabs, punchboards and tip boards; as well as door prize drawings and festivals, depending on the type of license involved.

Topics to be discussed during the 9:00 to 10:15 a.m. session will include: legislative changes for not-for-profit organizations; the new not-for-profit application; the new not-for-profit annual report; the not-for-profit sales tax exemption; and, unrelated business income.

Topics to be discussed during the 10:30 to 11:45 a.m. session will include: revised nightly summary report; use of charity gaming proceeds; registration of unlicensed events; record-keeping and retention guidelines; festivals; fines and penalties; and, protest and hearing procedures.

After lunch, there will be a panel discussion on specific problems from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

The seminars listed below will begin at 9:00 a.m. Doors open at 8:30 a.m. No reservations are required, but seating may be limited; therefore attendees should plan to arrive early. Anyone desiring special accommodations should call (317) 232-4646 at least 72 hours in advance.

September 27	The Garrison, Ft. Harrison State Park, 6002 N. Post Rd., Indianapolis
October 4	Ramada Inn, 2550 N. Michigan St. & U.S. 30, Plymouth
November 8	Clifty Inn, Clifty Falls State Park, S.R. 56, Madison